September Is the Real New Year

Even (mumble, mumble) years since graduation, September is still somehow mentally the beginning of a new year. Apparently this is quite common, a “muscle memory” from our formative years in school. Psychologists call it the Fresh Start Effect. It’s a chance to finish those projects that got put on hold over the lazy summer months and to make steps on new ones. And unlike in January, we have the uplift from pleasant weather and lots of daylight.

We’ve got a mighty tasty menu plan for the Harvest Supper on Saturday October 3rd. Please join us at the Community Centre 5-7pm. We’ll be roasting up potatoes and Johnston’s ham. We haven’t had cabbage rolls on the menu for 10 years. That makes them new for the many neighbours who have moved here in that time. As ever, all are welcome to the prep party on Friday October 2nd at 6pm. Bring your potato peeler and favourite knife along with some gossip to share. Harvest Supper Page 6.

Chilliwack’s municipal election will be held Saturday October 17th. Our local polling station is Yarrow Community School 4595 Wilson Road. We will be electing a new mayor along with 6 councilors. Check the city’s website for advance poll information.

The Volunteer Society will host an All Candidates Meeting on Monday October 5th at 7pm. There are large slates of candidates for both mayor and council so we will be unable to showcase School Board trustee candidates that evening. Special thanks to Diane Janzen for moderating the meeting. Please plan to attend. All Candidates Meeting Page 10.

Yarrow Seniors: Where the Air Quality is Always Fine

Summer of 2026 is behind us now. It was a little more challenging than some summers. The frequent days and weeks of smoke in the air that led to numerous days of Yellow and Orange Air Quality warnings proved a bit challenging for some of us. Nevertheless, the skies in Yarrow are clearing and so is our outlook for clear days ahead.

Yarrow Seniors is proving to be a kindly, generous and flexible bunch of folk! We meet in our lovely room in the Community Hall where it is comfortably cool on hot days and cozy warm on those cooler winter days. The only thing missing is YOU! We extend an invitation to you to come and visit us in September or October. After that it would be wonderful to have you come and join us on a regular basis.

Games, especially cribbage, are always a “go”. But so are other games and puzzles. We also enjoy and look forward to special events like bbqs, picnics, special annual Christmas dinners and surprise “pop-up” opportunities. “Pop-up events” depend on creative suggestions from our members. So this fall, please consider checking in on us at the Community Hall, every Wednesday. Since Covid, several members have wanted to bring their own lunch and we munch together at 12 noon. Other members come along at 12:30 when we customarily start playing games. So come, be our guest. We hope to see you!

Wednesday 12:00 or 12:30 in the Seniors Room, Community Hall

Yarrow Days Recap - The Heartbeat of Our Community!

Yarrow Days 2026 is in the books, and it was another great weekend in our community. After watching the forecast all week, we got lucky with the weather. The show and shine and parade stayed dry, along with most of Saturday's market and entertainment. The rain didn't arrive until almost the very end.

Around 200 people took part in the Fun Run, and Yarrow Days raised more than $13,000 in total this year. The parade was great as always, the new wooden medals were a hit, and our very own "Princess and the Poop" proved that even a Good Witch gets the dirty jobs. The market, live entertainment, kids' games and Imagination Station kept the park busy. The taekwondo demonstration and Bhangra dancers were crowd favourites.

The dance may not have sold out, but those who came had a great time. Sunday's brunch and community church service helped round out the weekend.

Yarrow Days takes a lot of people working together. A huge thank you to the volunteers, firefighters, Rugby Club, performers, vendors, sponsors, parade participants and everyone else who helped with setup, cleanup and everything in between. Most of all, thank you to everyone who came out and made it such a fun community weekend!

"Community is built in the moments we show up and celebrate together."

A First-Place Finish for a Yarrow Days Truck

If this beautiful vintage GMC caught your eye during the Yarrow Days parade, there is a local story behind it. Victor originally owned the truck and is pictured behind the wheel holding its first-place prize. The “Yarrow Days” lettering was planned especially for the parade, making the truck a perfect addition to the celebration.

The truck was completed locally by Mike Martens in his shop, Martens Motors Co., and Mike is now its proud owner. It was a great display of local craftsmanship, community pride and a beautiful piece of automotive history.

Come Have a Say in Yarrow!

The Yarrow Volunteer Society and Yarrow Ratepayers AGM is coming up in February 2027, and we would love to see more neighbours in the room this year.

An AGM may sound formal, but it is one of the best opportunities to hear what is happening in Yarrow and ask questions about the issues that matter to you.

Last year, residents heard updates from the City of Chilliwack, Yarrow Fire Hall, RCMP and Yarrow Library. The conversation covered everything from drainage, road paving and traffic concerns to community safety, library programs, Yarrow Days, the Tree Lighting and improvements at the Community Hall.

You do not need to be on a board or sign up for a volunteer position to attend (although if this does interest you, reach out to Carol, Jenna, or another member of the Ratepayer or Volunteer Society).

Come listen, learn, meet a few neighbours or bring a question you would like answered. Your attendance helps make sure more voices and perspectives from our community are heard.

As always, we'll have complimentary coffee, home-baked goodies and our small-town-famous basket draw for everyone in attendance.

The exact date and time will be announced soon. Please watch for details and plan to join us at the Yarrow Community Hall in February 2027! We can't wait to see you, neighbour.

Hear From The Candidates

The Yarrow Volunteer Society is hosting an All Candidates Meeting on Monday, October 5 at 7 p.m. at the Yarrow Community Hall.

All mayoral and council candidates have been invited, giving Yarrow residents an opportunity to hear directly from the people asking for their vote. With such a large field of candidates, we are unable to include School Board trustee candidates this evening.

The decisions made at City Hall affect our everyday lives, from roads and development to taxes and local services. This is your chance to hear where the candidates stand before the municipal election on Saturday, October 17.

Please plan to attend and bring a neighbour. A strong turnout shows that Yarrow residents are engaged, informed and paying attention.

History Behind “The Barn”

Submitted by Carol Bell

As long as I have been on the Ratepayer's board, we have used the [barn] image on our letterhead and other stationery. Jenna asked me who designed it. I could not answer. It had always seemed the ideal graphic for rural Yarrow. The barn is iconic BC 20th century farmstead architecture. I wrote to Elsie Giesbrecht who was the newsletter editor here in town before me. As usual, Elsie had all the answers:

“The artist is Ted Driediger. The barn still belongs to Wes Heinrich's who now chicken farms the original Knox farm, end of Wilson Rd, he also built a new home next it. We lived in the former Knox house with 3 acres, before we moved away.

The property acreage was subdivided many years before that, & George Heinrich's bought it then, chicken farming & crops, & lived on Highland Dr. The Knox house & 3 acres, became ours in 1973.

Ted Driediger had a Pottery, back in 1982, I asked him if he could draw Pen & Ink pictures of old Yarrow scenes, to be sold at our Yarrow Days that year as 8x10 to frame, you probably remember them. He happily agreed.

I had asked for 4,

former Post Office, across from Hank the Barber*

former Yarrow train Station, it was end of Wilson, (Majuba Heritage Park)*

Railway Bridge*

Old Yarrow Elementary School, where the Pioneer Park is now.*

As he brought me the finished pictures, he said I have a surprise for you. Ted had also drawn a picture of the original Knox farm; house, barn, fields from a distance - Our house! I just love it. Now there were 5 pics.

So when they made your letterhead, they just clipped the Barn part. There's the story, a great gift to Yarrow, 44 yrs ago. Reprinted many times. I still have the originals.

Last year the Chwck cultural centre, featured Ted's Pottery. I chatted with him there, told him I had his originals, how much we appreciated his gift to Yarrow. He is retired to Sardis.”

So now we all know the complete story of “The Barn.”

Hops and Yarrow

Submitted by Victor Froese

Many will have lately driven down the Vedder Mountain Road and noted the vines with cone-shaped green objects growing up on telephone post – those are hops. Hops have a long and interesting association with what is now the town of Yarrow.

After the drainage of Sumas Lake in the 1920's, the BC Hop Company purchased about 640 acres of land to grow hops. The recent flooding in and around Yarrow reminded us of where the lake was originally located.

In May of 1928 a group of 15 Mennonite families were drawn from Manitoba to settle the reclaimed lake bottom by Chauncey Eckert who had amassed some 1,200 acres of land. He provided the settlers each with 10 acres of land, often on credit, because they had little money since they were immigrants from the Ukraine, and he often assisted with building materials as well.

The first few years (depression years) were difficult as the land was still water saturated and housing needed to be built. One of the few ways to earn income was to work in the hopyards and pick the hops in the Fall. All work was manual since machine picking was not yet invented in the 1950's. I personally recall as a young teenager being trucked to the hop fields early in the morning to pick hops. The cone-like fruits were stripped from the vines into baskets which were weighed for approximately 5 cents per pound. During the harvest most Yarrow families were involved.

Older residents of Yarrow will recall the John I. Hass Company's hop fields in Sardis as well as the hop processing plant where now there is a shopping centre at Vedder Road and Stevenson Road.

There is also a serendipitous relationship between “hops” and “yarrow (the plant)”; both may be used to produce the bitter taste in beer !

Passing the Torch: Yarrow Volunteer Society/Yarrow Community School Society Bursary

For 30 years, the Yarrow Volunteer Society has recognized local School District 33 graduates who have given their time to help with community efforts. In recent years, the Yarrow Community School Society has joined in supporting the bursary, allowing it to grow and provide even more meaningful support to the student who receives it.

The bursary was created in honour of Marshall Janzen, who helped bring this very newsletter into the computer age, back when that was still something new. But his legacy is about more than technology. He saw the value in helping a community stay informed, connected and involved.

The Yarrow we know and love didn't happen by accident. It was built by generations of people who chose to show up. They planned celebrations, cared for shared spaces, asked important questions and gave their time to their neighbours. So much of what makes this place feel like home exists because someone decided Yarrow was worth the effort.

Now, that story is being handed to a new generation.

We don't want young people to volunteer because they feel obligated. We hope they discover that their time can genuinely change something. You don't have to wait until you're older for your ideas to matter. Every time you lend a hand, you become part of this community's story and help decide what comes next.

To the young people of Yarrow: this bursary is one small way of saying thank you, and of reminding you that you already have a place in Yarrow's story.

Volunteers from years past - making our Community Suppers possible.

LOCALS youth group spent a morning this summer doing some deep cleaning at the community centre. Thank you!
